

Coquitlam College MIDTERM EXAM

Examination Rules:

1. Instructors are required to ask for your photo identification.
2. Students must not bring out an electronic device (cell phones, watches, etc.) during an examination.
3. Students who look at or turn on an electronic device during the examination will fail the exam.
4. Respect your fellow students and be quiet in the corridor.
5. No notes are allowed.
6. Books, coats, hats and bags are discouraged in this examination. If they are present, they should be placed at the front of the classroom or under the desk. Bags must be closed; hats must be removed, and students must never reach for anything in a bag.
7. Do not speak to anyone apart from the instructor. Raise your hand if you need attention.
8. Any material that is exchanged from one student to another will be interpreted as cheating. This also includes material that has fallen to the floor.
