

COURSE NUMBER: HIST 102

CREDITS: 3

COURSE TITLE: Canada Since Confederation

PREREQUISITES: None

---

Total Hours: 39

---

COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course examines Canadian history from Confederation to modern Canada. The focus will be on the major social, economic, political and cultural developments as analyzed through the lenses of ethnicity, class and gender. Themes to be considered include: Confederation and nation building; urban and industrial growth; Canada and the World Wars; the Great Depression; and modern Quebec and Canada. These themes will be examined through lectures, course readings, presentations, and discussions.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

Upon successful completion of this course, you should be able to:

- Identify and explain the major historical events, themes, and processes of Canada's history from Confederation to modern Canada.
- Evaluate and understand the significance of historical events, themes, and processes of Canada's history from Confederation to modern Canada.
- Identify and analyze primary and secondary sources related to Canada's history.
- Develop critical reading, thinking, and writing skills.

COURSE CONTENT:

Week	Topic
Week 1	Introduction; Confederation
Week 2	Three Oceans, Cone Country: 1867-1880; The National Policy
Week 3	The Fragile Union and Regionalism; Imperialism, Continentalism and Nationalism
Week 4	Industrialism; Impacts of Urban and Industrial Growth
Week 5	Social Reform and Cultural Review for Midterm Exam
Week 6	Midterm Canada and the Great War
Week 7	Canada 1919-1929; Canada in the Great Depression

Week 8	Canada and World War II; Towards a More Affluent Society 1945-1960
Week 9	Protest and Reform: The 1960s; Modern Quebec
Week 10	Immigration and Multiculturalism
Week 11	Aboriginal Canada 1945-Present; Canada at War 1945-Present
Week 12	Canada in the 1970s and 1980s; Contemporary Canada
Week 13	Presentations ; Review for Final Exam
Week 14	Final Exam