COURSE DESCRIPTION

Introduction to Spanish Language and Culture. Skill development activities are based on listening, speaking, reading, and writing. Second of two semesters following Span 101, Basic Spanish I.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Be familiar with the basics of Spanish started in Spanish 101 and be prepared for further language courses.
- Comprehend Spanish readings and pronunciation based on chapter topics and vocabulary.
- Develop writing, using clear, simple sentences with vocabulary studied.
- Carry out a simple everyday conversation, progressing from simple one-word answers to speaking in longer, clearer, and well-constructed sentences using the vocabulary studied.
- Create dialogues using grammar points and vocabulary learned in each lesson. Spanish grammar focuses on basic Spanish grammar, indirect object pronouns, constructions with GUSTAR, time expressions with HACER, preterit of regular verbs, ordinal numbers, formation of adverbs, uses of POR and PARA, reflexive constructions, possessive pronouns, irregular preterits, the imperfect, the relative pronouns and the subjunctive mode.
