COURSE DESCRIPTION

In this course, we will explore the labour market of an economy. In this market of labour, the workers are the suppliers of labour and the employers are the demanders of labour. Within the interaction of labour, we will discuss topics such as wage determination, human capital, discrimination, unemployment, labour market policy, and others.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Learn basic concepts and terminology used in the field of Labour Economics.
- Practice mathematical tools and methods that are used in Economic Theory.
- Learn the theoretical modeling and derivation of the Supply of Labour.
- Learn the theoretical modeling and derivation of the Demand of Labour.
- Learn different theoretical approaches to wage determination in various markets.
- Familiarization with relevant topics and theories studied in Labour Markets
